

Travel with the Biela to downtown Geneva, Illinois recognized for maintaining a tradition of hospitality, charm, and character. The Little Traveler has remained the cornerstone of this tradition. The former Victorian mansion, built in 1862 became a landmark in the shopping district in 1922 when Kate Raftery opened her home as a small gift shop. We will dine in the Atrium Café, located within The Little Traveler, in the peaceful setting of an indoor atrium before enjoying an afternoon in what is known as one of the most unique shopping districts in the Midwest.
